"What does your Membership Fee pay for?"

There are currently 328 members (269 paid) of the Capital Quilters Guild. Let's look at the "necessary" expenses that the guild needs to meet its goals.

$23.64 Temple Beth Or

7.62 Storage Unit

3.72 Insurance

4.46 Tax Accountant

7.16 Charity Quilts/Outreach

$46.60 total per member

You pay $25.00 in dues every year and that amount doesn't cover the necessary expenses, much less the costs associated with running the guild meetings, workshops, or speakers.

Workshops are meant to be self sustaining. If we leave a seat open in a workshop we are losing money on that speaker. The workshops on Friday and Saturday also cover the fee charged by the speaker for the Thursday night lecture.

Without your help attending workshops, supporting fundraising activities and selling raffle tickets we can not meet our Annual Expenses.

When the Board asks for your help we are asking because we want to provide you with everything that you expect year after year.

Laura Suich and Lanakila Alexander

Holiday Potluck Social!

We will celebrate the holidays together with a limited "Potluck Social" at our December meeting.

We are asking members to bring one of the following finger foods to share: Cheese & Crackers, Fruit, or Cookies and your own beverage. The guild will provide paper goods.

To promote conversations and sharing among the membership we will set up the hall with round tables and chairs. We are looking forward to having you join us!

December 2015

President's Message

Dear Guild,

Signs everywhere declare that we have entered the 'Season of Giving'. Every year it seems that the Christmas holiday season gets started earlier and earlier, with decorations popping up even before Halloween. I am not a woman of faith, but the commercialization of the whole 'Season of Giving' still makes me bitter. A few years ago my family decided to cancel holidays. We see each other when the prices for flights aren't insane, we eat turkey, ham, and pumpkin pie any time we please, and we don't stress about finding the perfect gift for absolutely everyone we know. So often those gifts are chosen out of a sense of obligation and given hardly a second thought by the recipient after the initial glow wears off.

Any cook can tell you that to counter a bitter taste, you just need to add in some sweet with a touch of salty. My entire 'Season of Giving' was rescued in just 5 minutes during the last guild meeting. Take my Bah Humbug Bitterness, add in more than 80 (EIGHTY!!!) charity quilts along with a touch of salt from my misty eyes, and voila! A couple of months ago we asked our members to help us collect a little more for the charities so that we could give more during a time when so many are often forgotten. It truly renewed my faith in humanity to see so many beautiful quilts come out for the charity parade that there literally was no room to move! These were gifts made from a sense of caring rather than obligation.

Just 4 days after this beautiful event, I received the following email through the guild email address:

"Thank you so much for the beautiful quilt you made for my mother-in-law. She is at Universal Healthcare off Perry Creek Road. When she was younger she made about 125 quilts to give to her four children. They are a treasure to us!! She is 95 years old now and is not able to quilt. We appreciate your thoughtfulness!!"

The 'Season of Giving' just kept giving when that very same guild meeting was featured in a very, very famous blog.

"The Capital Quilt Guild in Raleigh is a wonderful group with a very huge heart!"- Bonnie K. Hunter <http://quiltville.blogspot.com/2015/11/>

I have no words that can adequately capture my emotions, so I will share an appropriate quote instead. "I'm all toasty inside. And I'm leaking."- The Grinch

A hui hou kākou (Until we meet again),

Lanakila

Bee Keeper

The Board is helping me look for a second person to help run the Bee Keeper position. This is a very easy job, but also very important, as the Bees are small groups within the larger guild which keep us more connected.

There is a new Bee that has started at Wish Upon a Quilt Shop. This is a charity group only. What a great opportunity to make new friends and do something for the community.

Teachers and Workshops

Bonnie Hunter's lecture and workshops in November were very inspirational. The lecture describing her Scrap Users System and the accompanying trunk show were fabulous. On Friday students learned tips and tricks for completing Roll, Roll, Cotton Boll and on Saturday we worked on Texas Tumbleweed. Bonnie's enthusiasm and creativity was contagious.

Don't forget to check out the spring speakers and sign up for a class.

Our workshops are held at Highland United Methodist Church from 9 am—3:30 pm. You may register at the guild meeting or mail your registration form to Debby Femia at 4408 Irving Ct, Raleigh NC 27609

The library was a busy place last month, and it is sure to be the same this month!

Generous magazine donations continue to pour into the library. Thank you to all of those kind souls because the magazines are always very popular and appreciated.

Five new books are being added to the library collection. I purchased all three Linda Hahn books in October: New York Beauty Simplified, New York Beauty Diversified, and Rock That Quilt Block: Weathervane. Linda also signed and donated Insider's Guide to Quilting Careers!

Bonnie Hunter was also generous in November when she signed and donated String Fling: Scrappy, Happy, and Loving It! This book has that fabulous pineapple quilt pattern in it! Come by the library this month and check out these books!

Holiday Blocks

We had quite a few completed block kits returned at the November meeting. All kits must be turned in at the December meeting so that we can hold our drawings for the winners. Make sure you have filled out the two name tags and attached one to the block and the second will be used for the drawing. If you are not going to be able to attend, please send your block in with a friend. If you did not complete your block, return your kit (you will not be eligible for the drawing).

Good luck to everyone who participated in Holiday blocks. Hopefully there will be some lovely quilts completed from these kits in time for our June quilt show.
