Hope this finds everyone safe, healthy and happy.

I am envious of some of you because I am one of those "special" people that has to work and have not gotten to work from home yet. I would love to be able to finish some of the UFO's or even start another one. I can not wait till the next meeting we have to see all these beautiful quilts that everyone has been working on. Just think about how long our Show and Tell will be. Now I am not being disrespectful or unfeeling but trying to make the best of a very bad time. Having to stay at home has some advantages. You can only clean so much, so what is left to do but "QUILT". All the patterns you have wanted to try but never had the time, the ones that are started but not finished, the old favorites that you just love to make. I am sure that I do not have to worry about anyone running out of fabric but if that happens please let me know. I have more than enough to share as I am sure do a lot of guild members.

A lot of you are making masks and for that a big thank you.

Nothing is firm about the April meeting because it is so far away. Looking at the way things are right now, it probably is not going to happen, but right now that is in God's hands to see where we are in 3 weeks time. If you have anything that you want to share with the Guild and are not on Facebook to share please let me know I answer the guild e-mail at information@capitalquilters.org

For those on Facebook please keep sharing the pictures of those beautiful quilts as they are an inspiration to all.

Thank you for all that you do as a Guild and as individuals in this time of need for the country.

Alma Mellish
President
Capital Quilters Guild

Thank you

Membership

We didn't have our opportunity to get together as a group in March, and following the governor's guidelines, we won't be able to meet in April either. While you are working on your comfort quilts at home, don't forget to reach out to your friends and fellow quilters. We need to stick together while we are maintaining physical distance from each other. The Facebook group is a lively place for fun and inspiration. If you prefer one-on-one contact, you can reach out by phone or email using the connections you can find in the Membership Directory. If we can help you make contact, please don't hesitate to ask us.

BUZZY-BEE NEWS

Hi fellow quilters.

Hope everyone is safe, happy and buzzy quilting and sewing masks. The main things to keep clean and organized for now are our sewing machines and sewing rooms. Forget the rest of the house! That can be done later when we don't have time. In the meantime stay safe and I will see you, hopefully, in May.

Your Beekeeper,
Maria

WORKSHOPS & TEACHERS

Teacher/Workshop Update

The bad news, then the good news!

As all of the Cynthia England's April sold out workshop attendees know by now, Cynthia will not be flying to North Carolina, due to coronavirus pandemic. I was, however, able to reschedule her visit to the guild, but not until next year....June 2021. So the good news is that you will have another opportunity to meet her and learn her "picture piecing" technique!

I want to thank all who had registered and filled up both of her workshops! And as you already know, you will be receiving a full refund for your registration fees, in the mail soon. You will also have priority signing up for her June 2021 workshops and she has even offered to do a third workshop for us, if there is enough interest! More on that next year!

Now to address the May workshops with Quilters Gallery's Patti Cline and Cindy Page....Patti told me two weeks ago, that everything on their April/May schedule was changing daily....mostly cancellations/ rescheduling, due to the anticipated travel and group restrictions.

She and Cindy understand that we may need to cancel and reschedule, as well, but they will wait and hold us on their calendar for now. As you all know, things change hourly, so we will all wait to see what happens in May.

That being said, we do have openings in both of their May workshops. If you want to take a chance and sign-up for their May workshops, go ahead and mail me your registration and check. I will hold all checks until the May decision is made. The description of their classes are on our guild's website, www.capitalquilters.org. Check it out! They both look like fun!

Everyone stay at home; stay safe and stay well! Take care of your family and your neighbors!

Try something different! Learn something new! Happy sewing!

Raffle Quilts & Thank You!

So sad that our wonderful quilt show did not happen. The day of the CQG Board meeting was the same day the NC State Fairgrounds Administration cancelled all events. We were given an option to hold the quilt show in June, but the Board decided there was still too much uncertainty in the foreseeable future. And it is always a priority to keep all of us safe and healthy.

Many, many thanks to Nora Bailey and Karen Wahle for their work and leadership for the CQG 2020 Quilt Show. Everything was well organized, reflecting the skill of the leadership. Quilt returns went very smoothly. Vendor thank you letters have been sent. All the committees worked hard and well. And many thanks to all the committee chairs who put in countless hours of planning and decision-making. We are looking for a place to store the boutique items. Please contact me if you have a safe, indoor place. The CQG 2021 Quilt Show will be March 19 and 20, 2021 at the NC State Fairgrounds.

The raffle quilt drawing proceeded as planned on the afternoon of March 21. It was posted as a video in our CQG Facebook group. Shane Lowder of Morrisville, NC won the Hearts in Flight quilt. It has been delivered to him. He remembers getting two tickets at the Fest in the West and had never won anything up to now. Cherie Brugler and I attended Fest in the West and only sold $20 worth of tickets. The raffle quilt is a separate Guild activity and fundraiser, completely separate from our quilt shows. It just seems best to have the drawing on the last day of the quilt show. And a shout out to Sue Hatch - 1202 tickets sold, raising $1003.00. Thank you, Sue! In total, 3302 tickets were passed out, raising $2320.00. Many have asked about sold tickets that did not get back to me. The Board has decided to honor those sales and to exchange the sold stubs for entries for our next raffle quilt.

Our next quilt has been named Indigo Dreams. It is a blue and neutral quilt, 97x97 inches, quilted by Angela Clark. When we met again, I will have raffle tickets available. Meanwhile, stay safe. Thank you!

2020 Quilt Show Update

I want to thank all of the members for their quilts and donations to the Quilt Show. I also want to give an enormous thank you to my Committee Members for all of their hard work and commitment over the past two years and for the Board for their tremendous support. I will give a complete update on the Show at our next meeting, whenever that may be. Stay safe and healthy.

Nora Bailey, Quilt Show Chairman.

Charity and Community Outreach

Hello, everyone! I want to thank all of you for the quilts that have been turned in despite not being able to have our meeting! Since most of us are confined to our homes and our quilting rooms, we can stay busy with UFOs, I am sure!

I still have a good bunch of kits that need to be made into quilts. If you would like one or several, please contact me and I will be happy to meet you somewhere to let you pick some up from me!

President's Challenge!

The challenge is to take 1 or 2 pieces of fabric pictured, which is cut in 2.5 and 4.5 strips WOF. You must use a full strip of fabric in the quilt. It can be cut into any shape or form that you want just so you use the whole strip. There is no changing of the color. The quilt must be at least 36 in sq. or bigger. It must be finished including the binding. You have until the June meeting to finish. Happy Quilting!
